Facts and Figures.

In 1874 George Morgan Thomas was chosen Circuit Judge of this district. He served one term,—six years,—his successor, Hon. A. E. Cole, being elected in 1880. The State paid Mr. Thomas $14,400 for his services as Circuit Judge—paid him that sum to attend to the duties of the office. Instead, however, of being at his post of duty, he was absent on thirty-three occasions in the six years, and special Judges had to be chosen to hold court for him. For these special Judges the State had to pay $3,405.70, making the six years' service cost $17,805.70 instead of $14,400 as it ought to have done. The excuse offered by Judge Thomas' defenders is that he was "sick" and could not attend to the office, but a letter written from Vanceburg in 1877 says he was seemingly well and running around seeing to other business often when he ought to have been at his post as Judge. In order that our readers may know just when he was "sick," necessitating the election of special Judges, we publish the following certificate sent us from the Auditor's office:

Statement of the pro tem salaries paid in the Fourteenth Circuit Court District during the term of Circuit Judge George M. Thomas, from August 22, 1874, to August 21, 1880:

The above is a correct statement taken from the books in this office. CHAS. S. GAZER, Assistant and Acting Auditor.

SHADE CHAPMAN has been sent to the penitentiary for life from Martin County, for murder.

THE New York Tribune has come out for prohibition. It is one of the leading Republican papers in the country.

THE Republicans of the Tenth Pennsylvania district were unable to get any of their own party to make the race for Congress, and have endorsed the Democratic nominee.

THE Frankfort City Council has tendered five acres of ground to secure the colored normal school. Several of the citizens will subscribe liberally to the fund to obtain the school.

SAYS THE Catletsburg Leader: "When Judge Thomas gets into this end of the district he will strike a cold wave, so to speak, that will chill the marrow in his bones. The combination is not popular with the Republicans up here."

THE President is reported as being firmly opposed to Senator's sons being placed on the pay rolls of the Government. The Senators usually get their share of the pie without bringing in their sons to help them. If they "want the earth," they'll not get it with Cleveland's consent.

THE Democratic factions of New York have "harmonized" on Hon. A. S. Hewitt for Mayor, and a grand victory will be won by them next month.

THE news from West Virginia brings comfort and courage. That State is safely Democratic.

Tuesday, Nov. 2nd will be the day for the election all around. If the Democrats of this district will work from now on they will be rewarded by a glorious triumph on that day.

What Others Think of the Race.

Reports of the most reliable character from both Judge Wall's and Mr. Taubee's districts indicate their almost certain election in November. The only possible contingency that can prevent their election is the staying away from the polls of good Democrats, upon the idea that their votes will not be needed. Every Democrat in the State should esteem it an honor as well as a duty to vote for the nominee of the party, and in no districts is this obligation more pressing than in the Ninth and Tenth districts. If the Democracy does its duty the election of Wall and Taubee is assured.—Frankfort Capital.

The Latest Freak in Cards.

It's a great thing to be fashionable, and I think that those who are not acquire their fine taste, but that it grows within them like unto refined meanness and poetry. I met a little lady a few hours ago who is too fastidious and thorough about her toilet to acquire anything, and she assured me that at a dinner which she is to give at an early date the latest thing in cards is to be used. In a span of confidential regard she showed me the latest thing, and together we rhapsodized, and worshipped it. And now, with all influences removed, I don't think so much of the card, even though it is Egyptian, direct from New York, and artistic to a degree of raggedness, dirt, and age. The thing looked, as it seems to me, as if it had gone down in the Oregon, stayed there for several weeks, and then came up again. In size it is six inches long by four inches wide; its color is a sort of waterlogged gray brown, and the name upon its face was a sort of metallic black. As a courier and directory to a meal for healthy men and women it ought to have a very depressing effect. Maybe there is a method in artistic madness, and that's what its for. Such art would be useful.—Cleveland Plaindealer.

The American Oil Can Abroad.

There is not any discrimination in Turkey against American petroleum, whether at the depot or elsewhere, at least by the Ottoman government. If any facilities have been granted to those which have been granted to others, it has been equally extended to those no complaint has been made at the consulate or legation. Our importers of the American article are sufficiently awake to their own interests to promptly protest against such discrimination. The greatest local difficulty in Turkey and in the islands of the Aegean, is the Russian frauds connected with the sale of the American petroleum. The "Danaos," whom Virgil feared when bearing gifts, are generally the cunning culprits. They substitute the poorer Russian article in our American boxes and cans and sell it for the better American. But such impositions cannot last long. They soon find their remedy. It is astonishing what a useful article for every purpose, culinary and otherwise, is the square American tin oil can in the Turkish article is transported. You see it where a house is building. It holds the water to mix the mortar. You see it in the vineyard. With it the vine grower waters his plants. You run it on the hillside, on the rocks, and in the meadows; at the sweet waters of Asia and Europe, where the game hounds congregate, arrayed in their many-hued silk robes, to coquet and gossip. It furnishes the water from which the shepherds make. On Isle and mainland, in city and country, the American tin can is current, taking the place of wooden and tin buckets. I have even seen it in its debased, oxidized condition used to repair fences upon the silly turnpike on the road to the Sultan's palace at Yildiz. I saw a dozen watermen upon this side of Prinkipos filling out of the wells their casks of water upon their petroleum can.—S. S. Cox in Chicago Times.

A Dastardly Deed.

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—According to the story of the police, Mr. J. H. Cady was defendant in a suit for divorce about a week ago. Mrs. Cady was the plaintiff, and thought she had got rid of her troubles. But this morning, when she was about to enter the building at the northwest corner of Clark and Adams streets, where she works, her former husband pushed up to her without a word of warning, grabbed one of her earrings, and tore it out of the ear. Mrs. Cady screamed in agony, and her cries attracted the attention of the hundreds of people passing along the thoroughfare. The passerby stopped, and seeing a woman with a bleeding ear and a man running away, imagined they were witnessing a highway robbery. Hundreds of men started in pursuit of Cady. He swiftly sped down Clark street, and finally ran into the hands of an officer who took him to the station. Had the crowd got hold of him he would have fared very badly.

Arrested for Tampering With Letters.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 19.—Gen. Theodor F. Wack, the special treasury agent, detailed to San Francisco early this year, to succeed an official whose proceedings were said to be irregular, was arrested Saturday, charged with the tampering with the letters of the complainant is Mrs. Lily Hepburn, who alleges that Gen. Wack, being jealous because she rejected his attentions, opened a letter which he found in the corridor of her house when he was making a call, and seeing that it was an invitation from another gentleman to dine, threatened to show it to Mr. Hepburn if she did not look upon his suit more favorably. She informed Mr. Hepburn, who caused the postoffice authorities to prosecute Wack, but the matter was delayed, apparently by collusion of official until now, though the alleged offense occurred in August. Wack's defense is that as a special officer, he is authorized to open letters.

Refuse to Levy a Tax.

MAIDEN, Ind., Oct. 19.—A special election was held in Madison, Milton, Hanover and Saluda townships, this county, Saturday, to determine whether or not to levy a 2 per cent. tax in favor of the L. C. & D. railroad. In Madison it carried. In Hanover the vote for and against was a tie, and Milton and Saluda voted against.

CAMBRIDGE, Md., Oct. 19.—Hon. Henry Lloyd, governor of Maryland, was married to Miss Bettie Stapleton, at half-past 4 o'clock this morning, in Christ's Protestant Episcopal church, Rev. Theodore Barber, of this place, officiating.

Humors of a Land Steal.

EAU CLAIRE, Wis., Oct. 19.—Reports are in circulation of a heavy pine land steal on the Lake Coast D'Oreille reservation, which will implicate several prominent government officials and create a great political scandal.

Henry Ziegler, of Cincinnati, followed his runaway wife to Indianapolis, and after apparently effecting a reconciliation, suddenly declared his intention to kill her, and while the woman was praying for mercy, shot her twice, inflicting fatal wounds. He then shot and killed himself.

Doctors of Professor Cox.

RICHMOND, Ind., Oct. 19.—George T. Cox, professor of history and proctor at Fairham college, died this morning, aged twenty-eight, from congestion of the lungs following an attack of typhoid fever.

Storm Sufferers in Buffalo.

BUFFALO, Oct. 19.—The fund from the storm sufferers exceeds $1,500. Free-land Cleveland contributed $100. There are 106 persons now being cared for by the relief committee.

WASHINGTON DISPATCHES

THE MOST IMPORTANT EVENTS HAPPENING AT THE CAPITAL.

The Garfield Funeral Expenses Not Allocated—Congress Will Probably Be Asked for Another Appropriation to Make Up the Deficiency—Appointments.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—There is yet due Undertaker Spars, of this city, from the Garfield estate nearly $3,000. Spars was offered in compensation $700, which he refused to accept, believing Congress would see the bill paid in full. There was about $35,000 appropriated for the payment of Garfield funeral expenses, but the auditing committee pared down the bill which left a surplus of the appropriation in the treasury. Spars recently presented the bill to Mrs. Garfield, but up to the present time nothing has been heard from her. In case she refuses to pay it will again ask Congress for an appropriation.

Board of Pension Appeals.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—The reorganized and enlarged board of pension appeals, for which provision was made by the last session of Congress, will begin its work this week. The board consists of nine members instead of three as originally composed. The nine members will be appointed to three divisions, each embracing three of the members, and each being perfectly independent of the others. The new members of the board were recently appointed by Secretary Lamar, and it is expected that the new increased board will, in good time clear the docket of the vast accumulation of business by which it has long been embarrassed.

The necessity for the increase in the membership of the board arose from the rapid multiplication of appeals, and the decision in any case rendered by the board.

Not Responsible. WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—The war and navy departments deny that the government is in any sense responsible for the suspension of the South Boston iron works, as has been charged. Neither department is holding back accounts or refusing to pay obligations except the percentage retained under the terms of uncompleted contracts. The company has some old claims against the army ordnance department which the department has always refused to recognize.

Postmasters Appointed.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—The president has appointed the following named postmasters: Hiram H. Thomas, Col. George W. McCune, Sterling, Ill.; Edward K. Pitman, Leon, Iowa; Louis P. Kent, Sturgis, Mich.; Ormond E. Colby, N. Y.; John R. Moley, New Lexington, O.; James Sweeney, Chambersburg, Pa. In each of the above cases the old postmasters were suspended.

Courtesy to the French Guests.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—The treasury department has approved a suggestion of the collector of customs at New York, that every courtesy be afforded the French guests arriving to attend the Bartholdi dedication ceremonies, and that their baggage pass the custom house without inspection, etc.

Red Cross and the Flood Sufferers.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—Charles Barton, president of the American Association of the Red Cross, has issued a call on the societies in the south and southwest, and along the Mississippi river, to make collections of money and supplies for the benefit of the sufferers by the recent flood in Sabine Pass.

A Royal Party From Japan.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—The secretary of state is informed that Prince and Princess Komatsu and Prince and Princess Akihiro, of Japan, and their respective suites are expected to arrive at San Francisco to-day and the collector has been instructed to extend the usual courtesies.

Minister to Colombia Appointed.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—The president has appointed Gen. D. H. Maurice, of Virginia, to be envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary of the United States to the United States of Colombia. He was nominated for this position some month ago and failed of confirmation.

Found Dead in His Bed.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Oct. 19.—A. M. Pinkley, of Bowling Green, Ind., was found dead in bed yesterday at the Henderson house, under the bed was found an empty bottle labeled cyanide of potassium. When Pinkley came to the room he had had three horses entered for the race, which took place during the week. On Friday he informed an attack of the house that he had lost $180 at the races. He was a member of a rich and influential family in Clay county. An inquest will be held to-day.

Destructive Incendiary Fire at Fowler.

POWELL, Ind., Oct. 19.—At 8:30 o'clock last night a destructive fire broke out here, destroying four principal business houses. The loss is estimated at $12,000, only partially covered by insurance. The fire originated in the store of H. W. Brown's shoe store, and is supposed to be the work of an incendiary. The buildings consumed were Brown's shoe store, stock partially insured; Jones drug and jewelry store with greater part consumed; Lafayette shoe store, contents consumed; Mike Carr's saloon, insured with stock in North American for $1,300.

Per Perfection Poisoned.

ADRIAN, Mich., Oct. 19.—H. P. Finkell, Charles Houghton and family, and a man named Taylor, ten persons in all, were poisoned by arsenic put in sweet cider yesterday. Prompt medical aid saved their lives, although some are still very low.

Paid His Brother's Bill.

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—Sol. Sayles, the bondsman and brother of Henry L. Sayles, one of the "boodle" thieves, who is now in Canada, to-day in the court of general session paid $25,000, the amount of Henry L. Sayles' bill.

Distinguished Geologist Dead.

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 19.—Col. Charles Whitteley, the distinguished geologist and scholar, died this morning, aged seventy-nine.

The Mail Line wharfboat at Evansville, Ind., was totally destroyed by fire Sunday night, together with a large amount of freight on board. The loss, which was a new and improved vessel, based upon the experience has been formulated for the government of the board by which its work will be greatly facilitated and thus it is hoped to meet the demands of the numerous claimants upon the beneficence of the government.
